

Fold here

I am a pioneer of ocean exploration and conservation, and I even had my own TV show!

B

Rachel Carson
Jacques Cousteau
Jane Goodall

Answer:

Jacques Cousteau

"The Undersea World of Jacques Cousteau" was on television from 1968 – 1976.

We changed our name from The Quarrymen and became one of the most famous rock bands in the world.

B

The Wright Brothers
Gandhi
The Beatles

Answer:

The Beatles

The Quarrymen became The Beatles in February, 1960.

We are close friends who thought up Indiana Jones while on vacation in Hawaii.

B

Elvis Presley & Bob Dylan
Steven Spielberg & George Lucas
Frida Kahlo & Pablo Picasso

Answer:

Steven Spielberg & George Lucas

"Raiders of the Lost Ark" was the most successful film of 1981.

The most iconic image from my most famous movie is actually based on a well-known painting.

B

Steven Spielberg
Stan Lee
Alfred Hitchcock

Answer:

Alfred Hitchcock

The painting is Edward Hopper's "House By the Railroad" – which inspired the Bates home in "Psycho."

Fold here

"I am the GREATEST!" and I can float like a butterfly and sting like a bee!

Roberto Clemente
Nelson Mandela
Muhammad Ali

B

Answer:

Muhammad Ali

Muhammad Ali is the greatest heavyweight boxing champion of all time.

✂

I helped create technology that changed the way the world communicates with phones, computers, MP3 players, and tablets.

Thomas Edison
Steve Jobs
Marie Curie

B

Answer:

Steve Jobs

Steve Jobs is the founder of Apple. His motto was "Think Different."

✂

I had traveled to 67 countries by the time I was 40-years-old, and in 1932 alone I travelled over 60,000 miles: "Believe It or Not!"

Robert Ripley
Winston Churchill
Milton Hershey

B

Answer:

Robert Ripley

Robert Ripley circled the globe searching for extraordinary people doing extraordinary things for his "Believe It or Not!" cartoon.

✂

"Enter the Dragon" is the most popular movie I ever made.

Walt Disney
Stan Lee
Bruce Lee

B

Answer:

Bruce Lee

Bruce Lee is one of the greatest martial arts masters of all time!

Fold here

I started my career as a folksinger in the 1960s, but I'm now a member of the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame.

Sitting Bull
Bob Dylan
Ernest Shackleton

B

Answer:

Bob Dylan

Legendary musician Bob Dylan's real name is Robert Zimmerman.

I created the world's biggest chocolate company!

George Lucas
Milton Hershey
Henry Ford

B

Answer:

Milton Hershey

There is an entire town built around the Hershey chocolate factory: Hershey, Pennsylvania.

Some of my most famous paintings are of Campbell's Soup cans.

Pablo Picasso
Claude Monet
Andy Warhol

B

Answer:

Andy Warhol

Andy Warhol is the founder of the Pop Art movement. He loved to paint things that people see in everyday life.

Although I am famous for my costumes and wigs, I am one of the hardest-working country music stars.

Dolly Parton
Mother Theresa
Maya Angelou

B

Answer:

Dolly Parton

Dolly Parton has written hit songs all her life, as well as music for Broadway musicals and Hollywood films.

Fold here

I came up with the idea for the Spider-Man comic book character while watching a fly crawl up the wall.

JK Rowling
Stan Lee
Steve Jobs

B

Answer:

Stan Lee

Stan Lee, the founder of Marvel Comics, even has his own action figure!

My real name is Ted Geisel, but I wrote nearly forty very silly books under this name.

Charles Dickens
Mark Twain
Dr. Seuss

B

Answer:

Dr. Seuss

Ted Geisel's mother's maiden name was "Seuss" and he added the "Dr." because he was afraid he had disappointed his father by dropping out of college!

This Who Was? quiz is based on the New York Times bestselling Grosset & Dunlap series of children's books.

Specially created for kids ages 8 to 11, but enjoyed by readers of all ages, the Who Was? series has been educating and entertaining fans for over a decade. With a constantly growing list of nearly 100 titles, these fun illustrated biographies introduce readers to some of the most important figures in history.

Find your favorite at www.whowasbookseries.com